Any change to the tax record may result in an increase in a fee or a tax due to change in ownership, boundary, size, appraisal or assessment ratio. The increase may be due to the loss of an exemption or the re-allocation of a previously limited value. Once completed, this change will remain on the assessor records until an appropriate alteration is justified in the normal course of business. (See Section 12-37-3130 of the SC Code of Laws and SC Department of Revenue Regulation 117-1740.02)
